

Use this as a worksheet to complete your own hand...draw or write your responses....

...or put this up on the wall and use the questions as discussion points.

What do you dislike about being physically active?

Raise an important point...what should decision makers think about when planning physical activity for Hull?

What's important in your life, what are you committed to?

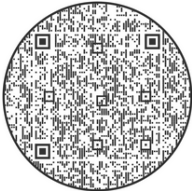

What promise could you make to yourself to be more physically active?

What do you like about being active?
